

6516205483.txt

i switched to satellite radio because the quality and content of conventional radio had declined so much over the last few years. don't legislate away competition!
leave satellite radio alone to grow and prosper.